NSS of PSGITECH has conducted a voting awareness campaign in our college campus todayon 01.04.2024. First, second and third year students together around 900 young first generation voter's has taken the pledge to vote. The conducted pledge to vote fairly was aimed at fostering transparent, inclusive, and ethical electoral practices, encompassing commitments to prevent voter fraud, respect vote confidentiality, and uphold democratic values. The initiative targeted a diverse audience, disseminating the pledge through online platforms, public campaigns, and collaborations with electoral authorities and civil society organizations. Implementation included educational initiatives and monitoring mechanisms to ensure adherence, with recommendations for sustained engagement to promote fair voting practices in future electoral cycles. Three videos shown by NSS volunteers on voting awareness directed by the election Commission of India.
